Global Citizen Value of the Month

“Empathy - Empatía”

*I listen to others. I care about how they feel.
Escucho a los demás. Me importa cómo se sienten.*

Reflection of the Week - Reflexión de la

Semana: Can you think of a time that your feelings were hurt? Did you wish that someone understood how you felt? ¿Puedes pensar en un momento donde te hirieron los sentimientos, y deseaste que alguien entendiera como te hicieron sentir?

Global Citizen of the Week

Meet our 3rd grader Eleana. She enjoys gymnastics, and her favorite subject is math. Tr. Shea-Nay says that Eleana is responsible. She always completes her homework, and in class she manages her time wisely. Eleana is kind and respectful to her teachers and peers, and she is always willing to help. She is a confident student who maintains a positive attitude when facing challenges - and she perseveres through them all!

Reminders

Breakfast & Lunch: Click here to view breakfast and lunch menus.

Inclement Weather: A larger student body and Covid restrictions prevent us from allowing students to congregate in large numbers indoors. We will have regular outdoor arrival and dismissal each day. Students should wear raincoats, hats, gloves, etc. as needed. Remember to label all items with your child’s name using a permanent marker.

Late Fee: Beginning, Monday, November 1st, ICSW will enforce a late fee for students who are picked up after 4:15pm. Parents will incur a fee of $5 for students who are picked up between 4:15-4:30pm, and $1 per minute after 4:30pm. Unpaid fees will result in the student being unable to participate in non-academic activities such as pretzel and snack sales, and incentive-based trips.
